

Layla Mackay

Layla Mackay is a clinical research assistant working with Care4Rare and supports the department of genetics at the Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario. She completed her undergraduate degree in biology and forensic science with a specialization in health science at Trent University. Since graduating and starting with the Care4Rare team, Layla has shifted her interest towards clinical genetics and is hoping to pursue a career in genetic counselling.