

Cathy Huculak

Cathy Huculak is a Certified Genetic Counsellor with Clinical Genetics at the Alberta Children’s Hospital. She has the privilege of working with patients and families experiencing a variety of hereditary disorders at many clinics across Canada since completing her education at the University of British Columbia. For the past 7 years, she has focused on inherited cardiac disorders, including familial hypercholesterolemia.